The Eva Olsson Story: Stronger Than Fire

The court cases of Keegstra and Zundel demonstrate that under the Charter of Rights and Freedoms, freedom of speech allows a person to spread false news but does not allow a person to promote hatred.

With these two cases in mind, view the video – Stronger than Fire.

Eva Olsson is a Holocaust survivor. She talks of bullying and being a bystander, of respect and forgiveness.

1. What important messages does Eva share on the above topics?

2. Choose either Keegstra or Zundel. What might they say to Eva Olsson after listening to her story?

3. Provide one specific way you can use Eva’s messages to make our school, our local community, or our world a better place.
