

Global Citizenship

Read the Global Citizenship document in the L:Drive in order to answer the following questions.

1. Fill in the blanks.

Welcome to the _____. Not only are you a citizen of your _____, _____, _____ but you are also a _____.

Communities – whether they are _____, _____, _____, _____, or _____ have always passed onto the _____ what it means to be a _____.

Now we need to extend our ideas of responsible citizenship to include the _____. We are all connected and interdependent citizens with global _____ and _____. No matter where we live, we share the _____ and its _____. What happens in one part of the _____ affects _____.

2. Define Global Village:

3. Explain what Martin Luther King meant when he said, “Before you finish breakfast this morning, you’ve depended on half the world.”

4. Explain what you think it means to be a global citizen (three different ways):

5. Explain how Amnesty International got started and describe its mission.

6. Explain why David Suzuki is considered by many to be a model global citizen.

7. Who are some global citizens who have made a significant contribution to the world?

8. What are some of the critical issues facing our world? (list three)

9. Choose one of the above issues. Explain what policies, programs or individual actions you think would contribute to improving the issue.

10. What is something YOU could do to be a more active global citizen?