

How did Canadians Respond to the Great Depression?

Read your text pg. 164-167 and complete the following:

1. What does the historian Pierre Burton say most Canadians thought was happening at the beginning of the Depression?

2. What was the name that was given to those people who were homeless and wandering the country looking for work? Who made up the majority of people in this group? (Which group was most effected?)

3. What does the cartoon featured in Fig. 6-19 reveal about the cartoonists beliefs about the Depression?

4. Describe the volatile activity in the Stock Market during October of 1929.

5. Which regions of Canada were hardest hit by the Depression? Why?

6. Read the segment entitled "A Teenager during the Depression" (Making History) p.166 and answer #1 & 2 in your notes.

7. Make a detailed list on the back of this sheet of all of the things that were going wrong for farmers in the prairies during the late 1920s and early to mid 1930s.
